“At the close of a man’s life, to estimate his worth it is wise to see him in relation to his life surroundings, to know not only the part he played as an individual, but also as a component part of the great events to which he contributed to the betterment of mankind.”

Mayo Clinic Real Estate Application, Gift Process: Evaluation and Intake

Below is a summary of Mayo Clinic's real estate gift process. Additional items may be added, depending on property type and other findings during the review process.

Attached is the Real Estate Gift Application.

Property Evaluation Phase

1. Benefactor completes the real estate application with the assistance of Development Officer, if needed.
2. Mayo completes a review of the proposed real estate by conducting the following:
 - Legal review of the title
 - Environmental Phase I assessment
 - Comparative market analysis by a realtor
 - Visit property; interview realtors, tour comparable properties and determine need for service providers
 - Seek approval from Mayo Clinic Gift Acceptance Team

Property Intake Phase

1. Mayo notifies the benefactor of their decision to accept or decline the gift of real estate. If accepted, Mayo will provide benefactor with instructions on the steps needed to complete the gift process, including ordering a qualified appraisal.
2. Mayo's legal counsel will draft the conveyance document at no cost, and provide to benefactor for review, prior to signing. Benefactor may choose to have their legal counsel draft the conveyance documents and provide to Mayo for review.
3. Benefactor delivers Deed, copy of appraisal, and IRS Form 8283 to Mayo.
4. Mayo obtains insurance and transfers utilities and services into Mayo's name.
5. Mayo issues an official Gift Receipt and signed IRS form 8283 to benefactor.
6. Mayo lists the property for sale.
